

THE OPPORTUNITIES AND LIMITATIONS OF LUCK

What makes someone successful? I think it's a winning combination of hard work and good luck. I can't deny I was fortunate in many ways beyond my control. I was born to excellent parents who loved me, and they taught me important life lessons along the way. Those facts make me feel very lucky. But success also required perseverance and even a bit of bad luck along the way ... CONTINUE READING

A CRITICAL FACTOR IN MANY PERSONAL INJURY CASES

What makes a case winnable is often out of a client's control. One of the most significant factors determining an outcome is its jurisdiction. The lines on a map that are invisible to us in everyday life can decide whether an injured person receives justice.

One such case came through our doors recently. A woman was walking home from work on a rainy day. A piece of sidewalk in her path had a significant chunk missing, and someone had ... CONTINUE READING

UNDERSTANDING YOUR RIGHTS AS A CAR BUYER

Cars are an American way of life, but they don't come cheap. Motor vehicles are many families' highest-value assets, second only to their homes. With the high cost of purchasing and repairing a car, many consumers feel comforted that lemon laws are on the books to protect them. Unfortunately, they may not cover as much as you think ... CONTINUE READING